Extra Announcement

The Thalhimer Store has secured the sales agency for the new-est of Ladies' Undergarments, "The Marcella"

Three garments in one—a closed drawer, an open drawer, a skirt. This garment buttons in front, fits close about the hips and falls in a ripple over the knees, forming a skirt, and conforms perfectly to the prevailing style of dresses. There is no fulness, no gathers, in the drawer around the waist or hips, but at the bottom, around the knees, it measures four yards, even in the 59c ones, and in this respect is fuller than the ordinary regular skirts, which measure only three yards.

Petticoat Bargains

Virginia Hot Springs Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Virginia Hot Springs, June 4.—The last of the cottage colony for the summer arrived during the week, and together with the hotel colony there is an unusually large assemblage for the summer season, which is just beginning. The cottage colonies at both the Warm and Healing Springs are also arriving and both hotels are now open for the season.
Mrs. David Dunlop has arrived at The Pillars for the summer and fall seasons, and is accompanied by the Misses Mercer, Sally LeMoine, Margaret Dunlop and Mrs. C. B. Johnston. Mrs. Dunlop will entertain several house parties throughout the summer, and is planning several garden parties and dances.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neave, of New York, and their family came to the Springs Thursday morning after a long tour abroad, and have reopened the President's Bungalow, where they spent last summer.
Mrs. Frederick Sterry and the Misses Prudence and Virginia Sterry are at present at Upland House, which the Rev. and Mrs. Maitland Alexander have leased for the late summer and fall seasons.
Mrs. Decatur Axtell is expected shortly to reopen their villa, which adjoining Shadmoor, the hotel.
Mr. and Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, who are now touring New England in their automobile, will motor down from New York next week, and open Ingalls' cottage for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Ingalls, who will bring several machines with their party, will open Ingalls' cottage during their stay here.
Others here at present in the villa colony include Judge and Mrs. William H. Jackson, at Edmonstone Lodge; Dr. and Mrs. Guy F. Whiting and the Misses Whiting at Barton Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. George Cole Scott and Miss Hilditch Scott at Fern Villa; Mr. and Mrs. George Gunton, at Gunton Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Baker and Miss Baker, at Gramercy Farm; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Pote, at Bon Venue, and among those who have hotel cottages for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Valentine, Sir Robert and Lady Hadfield, Miss Mary Johnston, the author; Mr. and Mrs. Clendenin J. Ryan, who will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fortune Ryan, who will come over from Oak Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Walsh. Mrs. Walsh will probably show her string of horses in the White Sulphur Horse Show, which will be one of the big features of the summer's program, which includes an especially arranged series of ball games and a number of garden fetes.
The biggest affair of the week, which included, in addition to golf, tennis, riding and driving, and the usual affairs at the farm houses, was the informal musicale in the crimson ballroom of the Homestead on Tuesday evening.
Miss Lillian Adams, of New York, gave a song recital and musicale, following the dance. In the company invited were Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer and Mrs. V. R. Johnson, Judge and Mrs. W. H. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller, Senator and Mrs. Guggenheim, Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mr. Charles Howry, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelso Cassatt, the Misses Sinnickson, Colonel Willis Brewer, Miss Estelle Brower, Justice James W. Gerard, Mrs. G. R. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Houlings Lippincott, Miss M. V. Lippincott and Major C. White, who married Miss Clara Longworth, of Cincinnati.

Mrs. C. L. Potter, wife of Major Potter, of the Engineer Corps, U. S. A., entertained a large mountain buckboard party at an old Virginia luncheon at the Healing Springs on Thursday, complimentary to Miss Caralisa Nichols. In the long list of hosts who have entertained at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone Log Cabin during the last week were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Philbin, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. T. Swan Frick and Colonel M. W. Peters.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond have been here for the past ten days and expect to remain until midsummer. Mr. Hammond, who has made a wager with President Taft that he can lower the President's record on the course here, has been playing religiously every morning and afternoon since his arrival.
Senator and Mrs. Guggenheim, of Colorado and Washington, are at the Homestead, and will stay at the Springs for several days.
Motor parties taking the Valley tour through Virginia continue to take the side trips from Staunton to the Springs, and the long list of arrivals during the week included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hopkins and Mrs. W. A. Thayer, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bond and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Van Nest, of Washington. Justice W. Howard McClintic and a party motored over the mountain to Staunton Thursday and posted the entire route, which has now been shortened by the erection of several bridges and is one of the best roads through the section.
Mrs. Eugene A. Philbin spent the week-end with Mr. Philbin at the Homestead. Mr. Philbin during his stay here has spent considerable time in the saddle, and has gone over all the trails from the old Indian ones over the mountain toward Bath Alum, to the two new ones over the Healing Springs Mountain.
Mrs. Adams left here last week for Quebec, where he will be joined by several invited guests who will accompany him to his fishing camp in Labrador for several weeks' hunting and salmon fishing. Senator Nelson W. Aldrich will be among others in the party.

Wadesboro Social News.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Wadesboro, N. C., June 4.—Next week is to be a busy week in social affairs. A number of the brides-to-be in honor of the brides-to-be of the week and two weddings are announced.
Wednesday evening, Miss Helen May McLendon, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter McLendon, will be married to DeWitt H. Morton, of Thomasville. The ceremony will occur at the spacious residence of the bride's parents, and the pastor of the First Baptist Church, the Rev. T. V. Chambliss will officiate. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception will be held and the bride and groom will leave for a Northern trip.
Thursday evening, at the Wadesboro Methodist Church, the marriage of Miss Charlie Belle Craig, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Griggs, to Ross Tull, will take place. J. H. West, the pastor of the church, will officiate. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom will leave for a short trip. Mr. Tull is in charge of the engineering corps of the Winston-Salem South Bound Railway.
Tuesday afternoon Mrs. T. V. Chambliss will entertain the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and other guests, and the honoree will be Mrs. Helen May McLendon.
Mrs. Anna Lee and J. P. Allen and Miss Allie Mae Burns spent last week at Columbia, S. C., attending the commencement exercises of Columbia College.
Misses Helen Mae McLendon, Shepherd Leak and Allen Leak have returned from Ansonville, where they were guests at a house party given by Mrs. J. M. Dunlap.
Misses Allie Morrison and Ina Winfree have returned from Greensboro after a delightful stay there with friends.
Mrs. Samuel Houston is entertaining Mrs. Frank Jones, of Charlotte.
Mrs. U. B. Blalock is spending some time with friends and relatives in Norwood.
Mrs. Roy M. Huntley was hostess last Friday evening to the members of the Y. W. A. After a most enjoyable evening, dainty refreshments were served.
Mrs. Eugene Little was hostess Friday afternoon from 4 to 6, and seventy-five guests enjoyed her hospitality. An elegant luncheon was served.
The Book Club enjoyed their meeting as the guests of Mrs. Will Parsons Thursday afternoon. A number of invited guests were present in addition to the members of the club.
South Boston Social News.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
South Boston, Va., June 4.—A pleasant social gathering was given by the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, to honor the first and second Bible classes of that church. The lecture room was beautifully decorated with cut-flowers and lighted candles. An interesting feature of the evening was a "song contest." After the exercises were dispensed with, delicious ices and cakes were greatly enjoyed. A delightful dance was given by the young men to the home and visiting girls Thursday evening, at the Masonic Temple. Music was furnished by the South Boston orchestra, and elegant refreshments were served at 1:30. Those dancing were Miss Elizabeth Easley, Thornton Easley, Miss Marie Easley, John Lovelace, Miss Louise Owen, John Evans, Miss Louise Penick, Cabell Penn, Miss Elizabeth Penick, A. R. Penick, Miss Annie Laurie Long, Russell Noblin, Miss Sallie Lovelace, Will Lee, Miss Margaret Webb, of Atlanta, P. Keith Briggs and Thaddeus D. Hodges, Robert E. Lee, Tom Howard, Sandy Easley, Charles B. Evers, of Lynchburg; Messrs. C. E. Faulkner, I. C. Green and W. J. Jordan.

On Friday evening the Royal Ambassadors of the Baptist Church gave an enjoyable social to its members.
Mrs. H. L. Boatwright, of Danville; Mrs. John Boatwright, of Mullins, S. C., and Mrs. R. H. Edmondson, of this place, left a few days ago for Opelika, Ala., to visit friends and relatives.
Mrs. F. L. Walker, Jr., of this place, is visiting friends in Danville.
Mr. C. Glenn, of New York, is visiting relatives in South Boston.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Edmondson, of this place, left a few days ago for Opelika, Ala., to visit friends and relatives.
Weldon Social News.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Weldon, N. C., June 4.—Misses Eliza and Zelma Mabry, of Henderson, have been spending the week with Miss Agnes Mosley.
Miss Maude Stainback has returned home from Manly, Va.
R. C. Cornwall, a former Richmond boy, who has been making his home here with his mother, Mrs. Mattie Cornwall, is now secretary and treasurer of a large hardware corporation at Shreveport, La.
Superintendent R. H. Latham, of the Weldon public schools, who is spending the vacation at Charlottesville, Va., wires that he will not return to Weldon for the next session, and sends in his resignation to accept a more lucrative position at Winston-Salem.
Mrs. J. L. Williams and daughter, Miss Louise, are spending some time with relatives at Wilson.
The Junior Daniel Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, met with Miss Susie Collier Friday afternoon and held appropriate exercises in honor of the anniversary of Jefferson Davis' Birthday.
Miss Lillian Long, of Northampton county, is visiting Miss Lillian Hill. Miss Lillian Stainback has returned home from Petersburg.
